For over 30 years Annie Mandlsohn has exhibited her artwork across Canada. Her first exhibition was at A Space Gallery in 1977 in Toronto. She graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree (B.F.A.) from Concordia University in Montreal specializing in visual arts and music, and also holds a Master in Environmental Studies Degree (M.E.S.) from York University in Toronto.

Annie is the recipient of several grants from the Canada Council and Ontario Arts Council, and has been favourably reviewed in Vanguard, ArtsCanada, Globe and Mail, Ottawa Revue, Chatelaine, CITY TV and various cultural and gallery publications.

At age 24 she was the youngest art instructor ever hired at the Art Gallery of Ontario in sculpture and mixed media, where she taught the adolescent and children's groups from across the province, as well as the adults.

Annie has lived and worked in urban, rural and remote areas of the country, and has travelled across Canada, USA, Europe and Japan. Her love of faraway places, often where tourists do not go, leads her to experience various cultures and adventures she encounters, finding unique journeys guided by an inner compass. The beauty of nature and the spirit and power of landscapes are reflected in her work.
